Reflection and Discussion Questions

1. Read Judges 21:25 aloud. How do you see this playing out in your life today? Where do you do what you want without consulting God? What does the world look like when everyone does that?
2. What did we learn about God from seeing his response to Ruth's and Naomi's despair?
3. What was your favorite "God Shot" this week? What did you learn about His character from these readings?

The Bible Recap

Bible Recap: Choose Who You Will Serve

“Now fear the Lord and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your ancestors worshiped beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt, and serve the Lord. But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.” Joshua 24:14-15

Joshua and the Israelites enter the land of Canaan, and God orders them to wipe out everybody there. After seven years of conquest, they have taken most of the land, and they have rest from their enemies. After seven years of hard labor, God gives them their first Sabbath year in the Promised Land. At the end of the conquest, Joshua is possibly in his 90's, yet he lives on in the land until he is 110. At that time he summons together all the tribes to renew the covenant with them and give them his final charge. He tells the Israelites to choose between Yahweh and any other god they can think of, and they promise to serve the LORD. We will soon see what becomes of their promise.
