Reflection and Discussion Questions

1. Throughout all of this week's chapters, Solomon listed several things that the wise avoid. Which is a struggle for you to avoid? Which can you thank God for helping you overcome?
2. Has studying the temple and its significance impacted the way you view the phrase "my body is a temple"? What are some common misunderstandings about this phrase?
3. What was your favorite "God Shot" this week? What did you learn about His character from these readings?

Bible Recap:

Proverbs 1:7-9

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Hear, my son, your father's instruction, and forsake not your mother's teaching, for they are a graceful garland for your head and pendants for your neck.

The book of proverbs starts with a father's instructions to his son. The father lets his son know that wisdom is worth the pursuit, and he lets his son know where wisdom is found. To gain wisdom one must have fear, a reverent awe for the LORD, and He will give wisdom to those who seek it.

There are echos in these verses about the fifth of the ten commandments. In Exodus 20:12 God tells His people to "Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long run the land that the LORD your God is giving you." If God is the head of the family, and has given you Godly parents, then He will also be giving the parents the understanding to raise their families. Proverbs, being the teaching of a father to his son, gives us instruction on how to live honestly and wisely in this world, while helping us to avoid the temptations that the world has for us. Thank God for good fathers and mothers. And thank Him that He is a good, good Father.
