Reflection and Discussion Questions

1. In Galatians (2:11-14), Paul mentions that he had to publicly rebuke Peter for failing to eat with the Gentiles and only eating with the Jews. What lessons can we take from this situation?
2. Read Galatians 4:6-7 aloud. Then read Romans 8:9 aloud. What message does Paul point to in both letters? Is it possible to be a Christian but not have the Holy Spirit? Why or why not?
3. What was your favorite "God Shot" this week? What did you learn about His character from these readings?

The Bible Recap

There are moments when faith needs more than words. The resurrection of Jesus Christ is a living proof that God keeps every promise He has ever made. Our world constantly demands evidence, and the risen Christ gives us more than enough to stand on. The truth about living proof runs deeper than what our eyes can see. For forty days after His resurrection, Jesus appeared to His disciples, walked with them, and spoke with them. He ate with them. He showed His wounds. That is a witness. If you have ever doubted whether your faith is worth holding onto, let this anchor you today. The same Jesus who rose from the dead is the same Jesus who walks with you right now. You are not following a dead religion. You are a living proof of His resurrection power. Today, your call is to carry that same living proof into your world. You may not have seen Jesus physically, but if He has changed your life, then you are His witness. Do not keep living proof of Christ's resurrection to yourself. Share your testimony. Let people see that Jesus is alive by the way you live, the way you love, and the way you respond to hardship. The world is watching. Give them something worth seeing.

Let's Pray
Our Father, thank You for the living proof of Your Son's resurrection. Let that same power rise in us today. Help us to be bold witnesses of Your truth wherever we go.

In the precious and mighty name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.
